Foundation Membership

Our membership program is designed to provide working loss prevention professionals as well as students the tools, resources, and networking opportunities to advance their careers. The program is anchored by our career, education, best practices, and student centers as described below.

To become a member of The Loss Prevention Foundation and experience the satisfaction of taking control of your career, you may opt for an Annual Membership, a Two-Year Membership, a Student-Educator or you may become a Charter Member for life.

Career Center

The career center provides a single, convenient location for obtaining relevant educational information on professional development and career planning. We believe it is important for each individual to take responsibility for their own development, and the tools offered in the career center will help do just that.

Some of the components of the career center include:

- Personal Assessment
- Career Plan Development
- Brain Teasers
- Industry Resources
- Travel Resources

Education Center

The education center allows members the opportunity to stay up to date with the latest in loss prevention and enable them to delve into other topics of interests. These offerings cover some of the most relevant areas of loss prevention and beyond.

Some of the components of the education center include:

- Bookstore and Articles
- White Papers
- Educational Webcasts
- Presentation Archives
- Professional Speakers

Best Practices Center

Often, the best source of information can be your peers working elsewhere in the industry. With that in mind, the Foundation's best practices center is designed to gather information from LP professionals in several different formats...all in one place.

Some of the components of the education center include:

- Tips from the Field
- Surveys
- Information Boards

Student Center

The student center provides information to college students who are interested in loss prevention and also to those LP professionals who want to continue their higher education.

Some of the components of the student center include:

- Student Liaison
- Higher Education Database
- Scholarships
- Retail Internship Database
- Job Descriptions and Org Charts
- Job Opportunities-link
- Alpha Phi Sigma

Student Membership

The student center provides information to college students who are interested in loss prevention and also those LP professionals who want to continue their higher education. As a student member, you will have total access to all of the on-line educational resources (see reverse side) that regular members have. Webinars, professional speaker series, assessment center, career articles, networking contacts & job search leads are some of the examples.

Additional components of the student center/membership include:

- Student Liaison
- Higher Education Database (members only)
- Scholarships
- Retail Loss Prevention Internships (members only)
- Job descriptions and Org Charts (members only)
- Job Opportunities (members only)
- Alpha Phi Sigma

Student Center: The student center is designed to give students a head start on their careers. As part of the student membership you will be given the opportunity to post your resume on the leading job site in the loss prevention industry (coming soon). In addition you will have access to our intern database which will give members the opportunity to discover what internships are available at retailers throughout the county. Eventually, the center will also feature a database of universities where retailers recruit, enabling student members to know where the retailers will be recruiting and when.

Price $49.00 per year- Just another credential to add to your resume!
